

DAFNA KAFFEMAN*Bio

Dafna Kaffeman received her MFA from the Sandberg Institute, Amsterdam (2001). Kaffeman has participated in many group and solo exhibitions in Europe, and the United States. Solo exhibitions include; the Chrysler Museum of Art (2021); the Museum of Craft and Design, San Francisco (2015-16); the American University Museum, Washington (2011) and Lorch+Seidel Contemporary, Berlin (2010, 2013, 2017). Her works are in the collections of leading art institutions around the world, including the Victoria and Albert (V&A) Museum, London; the Chrysler Museum of Art, Virginia; Montreal Museum of Fine Arts; and others. She was the recipient of the Israel Ministry of Culture and Sports Award (2011, 2016), and the Andree Matter Contemporary Artist Award from the Madrema Foundation in collaboration with The Israel Museum (2019).